Soundtrack A soundtrack is the recorded music accompanying a motion picture, television program, theatre play, video game or some other form of audiovisual media, such as a radio program. For a given medium, the soundtrack is the audio portion. The soundtrack is composed by recording artists. Film scores are sometimes presented separately from the soundtrack, although it is also recorded for future release on a separate recording. Mitogen-activated protein kinase phosphatase-1 (MKP-1) expression in growth and differentiation of myeloid cell lines. MKP-1 is a mitogen-activated protein kinase phosphatase (MKP) that specifically dephosphorylates and inactivates JNK, p38 MAP kinase, and ERK. To evaluate the role of MKP-1 in myeloid differentiation and proliferation, we analyzed the expression of MKP-1 in mouse myeloid cell lines induced to differentiate and in human myeloid leukemia cell lines. At the mRNA level, MKP-1 expression was induced in mouse myelomonocytic cells during myelomonocytic differentiation. However, there was little or no detectable expression of MKP-1 in the monocytic
